

December Reduction Sale!

Those who have attended our former Semi-Annual Clearing up Sales need no introduction to them, but to those who have never reaped the benefit of one should by all means attend this, from our standpoint, necessary evil to merchandising. Big cuts on all Winter goods, Odd lots and Remnants marked at about half price. If in need of a Cloak, Suit, Skirt, Underwear, Blankets, Comforts, Shoes, &c., come to this sale early and often. Sale begins WEDNESDAY, DEC. 6TH.

SEVERANCE & SON, STANFORD, KENTUCKY.

STANFORD, KY., - DEC. 8, 1905

INSPECT the line of Christmas Goods at Penny's Drug Store.

PERSONALS.

BORN, to the wife of W. J. Dozier, a son—Justin Pence.

MR. HENRY FIELDS is clerking in Severance & Son's.

MRS. LUTHER GIBBS, of Garrard, is with Mrs. J. C. Hays.

MISS MYRTLE CORMNEY, of Garrard, is with Mrs. Lala Cornney.

MISS KITTIE GOOCH is with Miss Mary Ellen Dudderar at McKinney.

MR. SAM W. MENEFEE, of Alton, Ill., was here Wednesday to see his parents.

MRS. L. B. COOK and Miss Clara Cooper spent Wednesday at Hustonville.

JOHN N. MENEFEE, JR., is now deputy county clerk under Mr. George B. Cooper.

MRS. MARY DAVISON, the aged mother of Judge G. M. Davison, is very sick.

MR. W. H. MURPHY has been severely annoyed by a carbuncle as big as a pumpkin.

MR. AND MRS. ERNEST WARREN, of Middleboro, are with the latter's parents here.

DR. J. K. VANARSDALE and Miss Alvira VanArsdale spent several days in Louisville this week.

MISS FLONNIE HAMMOND, our pretty Hubble correspondent, is visiting Miss Ada Carson in the West End.

DICK HAMPTON is back from Barren county, where he with a couple of friends bagged 150-odd quail.

MR. AND MRS. J. E. JOHNSON, of Atlanta, Ga., are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Bright.

MESDAMES J. W. ALCORN and J. N. Saunders and Miss Sotie Alcorn went to Louisville Wednesday to spend a few days.

Eld. F. M. TINDER, of Lancaster, is conducting an interesting meeting at White Oak school house, preaching each night.

MR. W. J. DOZIER arrived Tuesday to spend a few days with his wife, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Pence.

MRS. MARY F. BRADLEY, of Anniston, Ala., has our thanks for some of the beautiful flowers that still grow in the yards of her sunny home.

A LETTER from Mr. Louis Whitt, who moved from the East End to Stroud, O. T., some weeks ago, states that he is well pleased with his new home.

MR. J. R. NUNNELLEY orders his paper sent to the home of the Great Commoner, W. J. Bryan. He is getting pretty far from the best town on the map.

MR. S. E. OWSLEY, of Hazel Patch, was here yesterday returning from Danville, where he had been to see his daughter, Mrs. W. R. Rice, who is somewhat improved.

MR. R. B. MAHONY, who attended court at Liberty Monday, tells us that a good crowd was present. The docket for this term is a small one, he says, and the court will likely be a dull one.

MRS. J. S. RICE spent several days at Lebanon, the guest of Mrs. M. T. Matson. While there she and Mrs. R. O. Creel, of Chicago, were entertained at a swell reception and Mrs. Rice won a handsome ivory visitor's fan.

MR. W. O. WALKER will join the following gentlemen and leave this afternoon for Mississippi for a protracted hunt: Messrs. Ed. Steve and Woods Walker, of Garrard, and Col. Jack P. Chinn, of Mercer. They will go prepared to kill anything from an humble sparrow to a grizzly.

DR. J. K. VANARSDALE and family will move to Louisville about the 15th, the doctor having rented a nice home there. The legions of friends of this good family will give them up with much regret. Dr. VanArsdale is undecided as to the business he will engage in but we predict it will not be long before he strikes something good.

BRING your prescriptions to Dr. W. N. Craig for low prices and best service.

REMEMBER the Old Fiddlers' contest at McKinney to-morrow, Saturday night.

LAP robes, horse blankets, blizzard storm fronts for buggies, etc. J. C. McClary.

WANTED.—To exchange lumber, laths and fencing posts for corn. P. M. Conder, Crab Orchard.

FOR RENT.—Cottage near depot, just vacated by Capt. Richards. Possession at once. P. P. Nunneley.

THE Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church will meet in the lecture room of that church at 2:30 Saturday afternoon.

WHEN it comes to Holiday gifts, a selection of high class jewelry in rich designs is found at Mueller's in abundance and at right prices.

LIME PLANT.—A number of gentlemen, headed by Mr. James I. White, of this place, have leased a lot of land from Mr. H. D. Newland, of the Cedar Creek section, and will establish a lime plant.

As administrators of Columbus Bishop, we will sell in front of the courthouse door at 1:15 P. M., county court day, Dec. 11, 44 shares of stock in Lincoln County National Bank; 2 shares in First National Bank of Stanford and 3 shares in First State Bank of Junction City. Marcam & Bishop.

THE Stanford Dance Club met Wednesday night and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, George L. Penny; Vice President, R. T. Bruce; Honorary Vice Presidents, Joe Lynn B. Coffey and George B. Saulley; Treasurer, John N. Menefee; Secretary, J. M. Alverson; Musical Director, W. B. Wearen. It was decided at the meeting to have a swell dance at Walton's Opera House on the evening of Dec. 29th, with Wehrley's Orchestra, of Louisville, to furnish the music.

A SUCCESS.—George H. Farris' opening of Holiday Goods yesterday was a thing of beauty and a joy while it lasted. The large store was packed with pretty things tastily arranged and the decorations were both artistic and pretty. Blakely's orchestra sat in the rear and discoursed the sweetest music. While every line exhibited was well-filled and beautiful, that of decorated chinaware was the handsomest and most extensive. The opening was a success and a splendid method of advertising the magnificent stock Mr. Farris carries. Hundreds of ladies and gentlemen attended the opening and many of them congratulated Mr. Farris on the success of his enterprise. Those assisting Mr. F. care for the guests were: Mrs. Farris, Mrs. Mark Hardin, Miss Mary Mobley and Messrs. H. C. Farris, Mark Hardin, John Bright, Jr., and Robert L. Porter, Jr.

WOOLFOLK MAYOR.—After a stormy session, Mr. H. E. Woolfolk, editor of the Danville Advocate, was elected mayor of Little Britain, but it was not until Mr. Sam W. Menefee, formerly of this place, was elected and had resigned. Mr. Menefee, it will be remembered, was nominated for mayor in a hot primary, but since has taken a lucrative position with an immense St. Louis telephone concern. This necessarily caused him to move from Danville and he of course could not serve as mayor. There was a hot scramble for the office, but Mr. Menefee showed his good political acumen by having himself elected against great odds and after resigning, putting in his friend, Mr. Woolfolk. It was a "downing of the ring" to a considerable extent and Mr. Menefee's friends warmly congratulate him on his work. By the way, after Mr. Woolfolk had been chosen, the mayor's salary was cut from $600 to $300 per annum and other city salaries were lowered.

FOR Xmas presents see L. M. Huey & Co.

FOUND, on street, buckskin glove—gauntlet. Owner can get it at this office.

ABOUT the only thing done by the city council last night was the payment of claims, which did not aggregate a great deal.

THE stores present a gala appearance now and the urchin feels Christmas in his bones. The yuletide is almost here, sure enough.

THE Presbyterian Sunday School at McKinney will give an oyster supper Thursday evening next, 14th. Go and help a good cause.

FOR SALE.—House and 4½ acres of land one mile south of McKinney, on Middleburg pike, property of Mrs. Lucy Lewis. For terms apply to J. F. Cash, Turnersville.

AN anonymous letter writer is getting in his work here. Of all cringing, cowardly curs that ever lived the anonymous letter writer is the dirtiest. Even the plutonian regions are too good for such a filthy skunk.

SENATOR R. L. HUBBLE will make a strenuous effort to place Casey county in this congressional district. The "State of Casey" did so well Nov. 7, that she is deserving of anything good that may come her way.

THE ladies of the Presbyterian church will have their Bazaar Saturday, Dec. 9th, in the Odd Fellows' building, corner Main and Depot streets. Fancy and useful articles will be on sale; suitable for Christmas presents. All are invited to call.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 6, 1905.

W. H. Higgins, Stanford, Ky.

DEAR SIR:—Have all the ladies to come in Dec. 14th. Tell Jack to be sure and have a crowd in and make it the best we have ever had. W. T. Riddell, with H. J. Heinz & Co.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.—I will advertise in the INTERIOR JOURNAL on Tuesday, Dec. 12, 1905, all taxes on my books unpaid. This means you, as I will not have any favorites. I must settle on Jan. 1st, as my term of office expires then. M. S. Baughman, sheriff.

JOSEPH T. EMBRY, of Stanford, has decided to make the race for doorkeeper of the Senate at the next session of the Legislature. His name will be presented before the Democratic caucus by Senator R. L. Hubble. Mr. Embry is well known and widely connected in Boyle, and his friends here hope he will land the plum.—Advocate.

OUR Hustonville letter tells of an attempt to burn Mrs. Mary Brown's home. The night following, a little girl who waits on Mrs. Brown was struck by a rock thrown through the window. Bloodhounds were again brought to the scene and a trail of some 15 miles was made, but lost just as the town limits were reached. Things are in a chaotic condition at the West End capital and if something is not done somebody's going to get hurt.

COMPTON IN HOC.—Buena Vista Compton at last languishes in durance vile. He was arrested in Cincinnati, where he was working, and Deputy Sheriff Wood went for him and turned him over to Jailer Herrin Wednesday morning. "Buena" has been a bird in his day, but seems to us his troubles have now come in earnest. He has already served two terms in the penitentiary and another sentence, which he is sure to get, carries with it a life term. He is barely 25 years old but here is his record: Indicted in two cases in Feb. 1901, for petit larceny and given a jail sentence of six months each; sent to pen for one year November term, 1901, for breaking into depot; March term 1904, given another year for house-breaking. At the June term, 1901, he got six months in jail for throwing dynamite under a bull and blowing him to atoms. There are dozens of charges against him now and at least three indictments for felony will be returned at the next term of court. Compton has run roughshod over the people of the Milledgeville section for a long time but unless he escapes jail or penitentiary the chances are he will trouble them no more. We will try to give a picture of the young desperado as soon as we can "catch his shadow."

FOR SALE.—One house, 2 family horses, 1 cow, 1 carriage, 1 buggy, 1 buckboard and some household and kitchen furniture. Apply at once to J. K. VanArsdale.
